CRUM/CRUME

Lafayette, Louisiana

Emmett;

Here is what I know about the Crume tribe. Sumner in 1751 to S.C.

The Crumes originally lived in ~~Bordeaux, France~~ and migrated to ~~America in 1814~~. They were with Napoleon during his campaigns until his defeat at Waterloo, Belgium. About 1814, one of the Crume women married to General Cambronne, who was one of Napoleon's commanders. There are several streets in New Orleans named after Napoleon and his activities, one being Cambronne Street. Orangeburg -

There were several of the Crume men who migrated to America landing in South Carolina. I do not know their names except one was Vastine Crume, who was a brother to your great grandfather. From South Carolina the Crumes came to Mississippi and took up land near Terry, north west of Crystal Springs and south of Jackson, Mississippi, where their land holdings were large, and where large families were reared. Several of your grandfather's brothers were killed in the Civil War; your grandfather was wounded several times.

Crumes;

Emmett-----your grand father's brother, for whom you were named
William-----your grand father's brother
Mary-----your grand father's sister
Elizabeth-----your grandfather's sister. My mother
Henry-----your grandfather.

Henry Crume had a son who lived, Harvey, your father.

William Crume had two children, Dabney and Mabel/ Uncle William died about 1890 and was living at, or near Haughton, Louisiana, at that time. I have heard what became of the children.

Emmett Crume, a doctor, lived near Raymond, Mississippi. He was shot and killed from a horse he was riding by a feeble-minded man who lived on Uncle Emmett's place, about 1892 or 1893. He had no children.

Mary Crume married a Henry Davis. They had seven children.: Moina, Maud, Alieene, Harvey Dorothy, Louise and Clyde. Moina is dead. Maud lives at the old Lewis home about seven miles west of Terry, Mississippi. She has a boy and a girl. I do not know where the boy is, but the girl married a man named Nicholson, who runs a store about eight miles south of Jackson Mississippi on Highway No. 51. Harvey Davis now lives at Terry, Mississippi. I understand he has two children. I do not know where Clyde Davis is. Louise Davis is Mrs. Gillie Lewis and lives at 2312 Glenway, Louisville, Kentucky. She has no children. Dorothy Davis died about 1895 at Crystal Springs.

Elizabeth Crume, my mother, the youngest sister of your grand father, married Charles Augustus Pope, my father. He died at Crystal Springs, about 1899, or 1890. There were three children; Bernice, the oldest; Vastine, my older brother, and me Dudley Pope.

My mother died at Crystal Springs, on Sept. 1, 1896. Bernice died at Crystal Springs in 1891. My brother Vastine, went west about 1899. The last I seen of him was in Kansas City, Missouri about 1907. The last I heard of him was in 1915. He was in bad health, so surely must be dead. I was born near Terry, Miss. March 3, 1885. I have one son, Dudley, Jr. He was born at New Orleans, La. Feb. 13, 1916. He now lives at Baton Rouge, La. My father, mother, sister are all buried in the old Crystal Springs cemetery. If you ever hear any thing of Dabney and Mable Crume, please let me know.

Gene, I hope this get through to you. Sunday I tryed twice and each time my E-Mail was returned. Today I received an E-Mail, subject Crum but there was no message. So! again.

Looking for information on 4th great gf Harmon Crum or James Harmon Crum B: 11 Feb.1753, D: 3 Feb.1818, Mar. Ann Porter. 5th great gf David Crum R. S. B:1753, Mar: Ann Berry. 6th great gf Henry Crum B: ca 1731, D: 9 June 1752, Mar. 9 June 1752 to Magdalena Zorn. 7th great gf David Crum, Mar: Sarah?.

Some papers I have say that David Crum R.S. is not the son of Henry Crum and Magdalena Zorn. Then there are some that say he is their son.

If anyone is searching these, families I sure would appreciate any help.

Personal Info: These are my husbands families.
